CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VIKASH JAIN
ORAL ORDER

5 21-02-2019 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
APP for the State.

2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest for the offences alleged under Sections 147, 148, 149, 341, 323, 307,302,452 IPC registered in connection with Teghra P.S. Case No. 276 of 2017.

3. It is submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated and the accusations are general and omnibus in nature against all accused persons who are said to have assaulted the members of the informant's side. The petitioner claims clean antecedents.

4. Learned APP on the other hand, opposes the anticipatory bail petition pointing out from the FIR itself that specific accusation has been made against the petitioner of having assaulted the deceased on the head with rod. In para 42 of the case diary the post mortem report has been recorded, according to which the cause of death has been shown as hemorrhage owing to ante mortem injury caused by hard blunt substance.

5. Having regard to the nature of accusations and gravity of offence alleged, this Court is not inclined to grant the privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Bail petition stands dismissed.
