... .. Respondent/s

Appearance :

For the Appellant/s : Mr.Satya Prakash

For the Respondent/s : Mr.Binay Krishna

CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VINOD KUMAR SINHA
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date : 17-01-2019

Heard the parties.

The appellant is apprehending his arrest in connection with Revilganj P.S.Case No.36 of 2018 , registered for offences punishable under Sections 279, 337, 338, 307, 504, 506, 323, of the Indian Penal Code and Section 3(i)(x) of S.C./S.T. (Prevention of Atrocities) Act.

Allegation against the appellant is of dashing the cycle of the informant due to which his son fell down, received injuries and later on he died.

Submission of the learned counsel for the appellant is that at best the case comes under the purview of Section 304 of the IPC as that was not intentional.

Heard learned Spl.P.P. and the learned counsel for the informant. They have opposed the prayer for bail stating that the FIR clearly shows that the action of the appellant was intentional and he has also abused the informant by taking caste name.

Having heard both sides and in view of the facts and circumstances, as stated above, I am not inclined to grant privilege of the anticipatory bail rather let the appellant , above named, surrender before the court below within a period of six weeks from the date of order and make prayer for regular bail which will be considered by the learned Special Judge without being prejudiced by the order of this Court.

Accordingly, this appeal is dismissed.
