CORAM: HONOURABLE MR JUSTICE MADHURESH PRASAD

ORAL ORDER

3 04-11-2019 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the respondent-State.

The present writ petition assails an order dated 17.05.2011 passed in a departmental proceeding by the District Magistrate, Nalanda.

Learned counsel for the State raises an objection regarding maintainability of the instant proceedings on account of remedy available to the petitioner before the Commissioner by way of appeal.

Since the petitioner has adequate remedy before the Appellate Authority, this Court would dispose of the writ petition with liberty to the petitioner to avail of his remedy before the Appellate Authority.

The petitioner would be at liberty to raise the issue of pendency of the instant writ proceedings in this Court for such a long time to meet the delay occasioned in filing the same.
