ORAL ORDER

(Per: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR)

2 27-09-2019 Smt. Vijay Laxmi Srivastava, learned counsel for the petitioner in presence of Sri Vivek Prasad, learned GP-7 submits that in view of earlier development which had taken place in the writ petition, yesterday seized vehicle was handed over to the petitioner which has been received. She further tried to persuade the Court that the vehicle was handed over in damaged condition and not in a condition it was seized.

The Court is of the opinion that since in the writ petition, prayer was made for release of the vehicle and vehicle has already been released, no further order need to be passed.
