ORAL ORDER

8 05-12-2019 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

The petitioner has sought for anticipatory bail in Complaint Case No.299c/2015. Complainant is opposite party No.2. This application has already been dismissed against opposite party No.2 for non-compliance of peremptory order dated 21.10.2019.

Since opposite party No.2 is a necessary party, this application would not proceed in absence of opposite party No.2. Hence, it stands dismissed.

The petitioner may file fresh application for anticipatory bail, if so advised.
