CORAM: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE

and

HONOURABLE JUSTICE SMT. ANJANA MISHRA

ORAL JUDGMENT

(Per: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE)

Date : 25-01-2019

Heard Sri Prashant Sinha, learned counsel for the appellant and Sri Prabhakar Jha, learned counsel for the State of Bihar. No one appears on behalf of the respondent-petitioner.

2. Carefully perused the order passed by the Division Bench on 14th November, 2014. It appears that thereafter the matter was adjourned at the instance of the respondent-petitioner as he was contemplating to file Special Leave Petition before the Supreme Court, which facts stand noted in the order dated 27th August, 2015.

3. The Special Leave Petition was filed but was dismissed at that stage observing that it will be open to the appellant therein to approach the Apex Court after the review application is disposed of. The order of the Supreme Court dated 27.02.2015 is extracted herein under :

“We are not inclined to interfere at this stage. The special leave petitions are dismissed.

However, if after pursuing the review petition before the High Court, it so happen that the review is disposed of, the petitioner will be at liberty to revive this SLP and come up again against the order of the review petition as well.”

4. It appears that the review application before the learned Single Judge was allowed and the order dated 14th January, 2013 in so far as it related to the appellant was recalled. The order dated 29.07.2015 passed in Civil Review No.164 of 2013 is extracted herein under :

“The Court opines that may be the stage for giving direction upon Respondent No. 11 in terms of the order, dated 14.01.2013 may not have been reached. Matter will be considered at an appropriate stage. The direction, dated 14.01.2013, so far as it relates to Respondent No. 11, is hereby recalled.

Review application is allowed.”

5. In the backdrop of the facts as brought out in detail in the order dated 14th November, 2014 passed by the Division Bench, we entirely agree with the observations made therein and the said order shall form part of this judgment. We concur that the writ petition itself ought not to have been entertained. However, in view of the recall of the order by the learned Single Judge himself, not only these appeals but the writ petition giving rise to the appeals deserve to be consigned to records, subject to the observations made herein above. The appeals are, therefore, consigned to records and the copy of this order be placed on the records of the writ petition which shall also stand consigned.
