ORAL ORDER

3      27-09-2019

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

This application for anticipatory bail arises out of Ariyari P.S. Case No. 60 of 2019, disclosing the offence under Section 307 and other allied Sections of the Indian Penal Code.

It is alleged that on the date of occurrence, all the seven accused persons including co-accused Manju Devi (petitioner no. 3) started assaulting the informant with lathi, khanti etc. The informant is said to have sustained fracture injuries.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners has submitted that the occurrence exaggerated in the FIR has taken place in the background of a petty dispute between the parties and the injuries are found to be simple in nature.

Considering the facts and circumstances and the injury report that most of the injuries have been found to be simple in nature, this application is allowed. Let the petitioners, above-named, in the event of their arrest/surrender within six weeks from today in the court below, be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/-(ten thousand) each, with two sureties of the like amount each, to the satisfaction of the learned SDJM, Sheikhpura in Ariyari P.S. Case No. 60 of 2019, subject to the condition as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

This is subject to the condition that the petitioners shall present themselves before the Police/ Court, as the case may be, as and when required and in the event of failure on their part to appear before the court on two consecutive occasions, their bail bonds shall be liable to be cancelled.
