Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that from perusal of first information report it will appear that the thrust of allegations are against Ravi Kant Manjhi who happens to be one of the Devars of the informant. It is submitted that so far as these petitioners are concerned, they are the father-in-law, mother-in-law and two other younger brothers of the deceased husband of the informant about whom the allegations are that even though they had agreed for marriage between the informant and Ravi Kant Manjhi, they were demanding the sum of Rs. 2,00,000/- as dowry.
