ORAL ORDER

3 31-01-2019 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner, learned
A.P.P for the State and learned counsel appearing for the complainant.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Complaint Case No. 47 of 2017, registered under Section 498(A) of the Indian Penal Code.

The allegation of complainant/informant is that on 03.05.2015, she performed marriage with the petitioner and after the marriage, she went to her matrimonial house with the petitioner, where she was kept properly for few days, but after fifteen days, her husband (petitioner) and his other family members started to demand motorcycle, in dowry, and asked her to inform the matter to her parents to provide the same, on which she replied that her parents are not able to fulfill the above stated demand. Further allegation of complainant is that her husband Sanjay Kumar Baitha (Petitioner) is in the habit of taking liquor and used to come in house in drunken state and he used to abuse and assault her by fist and slaps. On protest, the other family members of the petitioner used to lock her in the room and stopped to provide meal. Lastly, on 28.05.2015, she was removed from her matrimonial house after snatching her personal belongings.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is a labourer and his status is not to maintain motorcycle and after marriage, the complainant/informant seeing the poverty of the petitioner, does not want to live with him and only to harass the petitioner, the present complaint case has been lodged.

Learned counsel appearing for the complainant submits that complainant/informant does not want to live with the petitioner due to his cruel behaviour.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, let the above named petitioner, be released on bail, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of four weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the S.D.J.M. Bikramganj, Rohtas in connection with Complaint case No. 47 of 2017, subject to the condition as laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Cr.P.C.
