Case No. 70/1990, whereby and whereunder they all have been found guilty for an offence punishable under Section 323 of the Indian Penal Code and sentenced to undergo S.I. for six months as well as to pay fine appertaining to Rs. 500/-, in default thereof, to undergo S.I. for 20 days, under Section 341 of the Indian Penal Code and sentenced to undergo S.I. for 15 days as well as to pay fine appertaining to Rs. 200/-, in default thereof, to undergo S.I. for 10 days, under Section 307/34 of the Indian Penal Code and sentenced to undergo R.I. for ten years as well as to pay fine appertaining to Rs. 2,000/- each and in default thereof, to undergo S.I. for two months with further direction to run the sentences concurrently, on account thereof, have been heard together and are being decided by a common judgment.

s/o Ramasray Prasad, Ramprit Singh, s/o Badri Singh and Jhagru Singh, s/o Khublal Singh encircled him over road and then, began to assault with lathi and danda. After hearing hue and cry, he along with his mother Marni Devi rushed. As soon as they reached, Suresh gave Bhala blow over neck of his mother Marni Devi, as a result of which, she sustained injury over her neck and fell down. Blood has oozen out and spread over the ground. He rushed in rescue whereupon, Hardeo Singh gave blow with the back portion of axe over his head, as a result of which, he also sustained injury and blood has oozen out. On hue and cry, Rakesh Kumar, s/o Rajendra Pd. Singh and others, came in rescue. Land dispute has been shown to be motive of the occurrence.

After registration of Patepur P.S. Case No. 70/1990, investigation commenced and concluded by way of submission of charge-sheet, facilitating the trial, meeting with ultimate result, subject matter of instant appeal.

Defence case as is evident from the mode of cross-examination as well as statement recorded under Section 313 of the Cr.P.C. is of complete denial. It has further been pleaded that the prosecution party were the aggressor and on the alleged date and time of occurrence, they had assaulted, whereupon on the Fardbeyan of Ramasray Prasad, Patepur P.S. PW 2, Chandar Devi, is aunt. She has deposed that she knew about the occurrence. Occurrence took place about 14 years ago. In para 12, she has stated that the father of Hareesh and Suresh, namely, Ramashray had not lodged case against her as well as her husband. She was not knowing whether aforesaid case is pending before M.K. Singh, Judicial Magistrate, Hajipur. Then has denied the suggestion that on account of being aunt of Ravindra Singh, she has deposed falsely. It has also been denied that on account of case instituted by Ramashray Singh against her as well as her husband, she has falsely deposed intentionally.

PW 6, during course of his evidence, has simply exhibited his signature over an F.I.R. being attesting witness. Then, he has stated that he is not knowing with regard to the occurrence and so, he was declared hostile and then, he was confronted with his earlier statement. During cross-examination, he has stated that he had put signature over Fardbeyan as directed by police. On Court question, he has stated that he has signed over the Fardbeyan at the Mahua Hospital gate, where he had gone on account of some personal work. In likewise manner, PW 7 also became hostile. PW 8 is formal in nature as, till then doctor had not come, so, simply exhibited the injury report being in pen and signature of PW 9. PW 10 is the police official, who has conducted part investigation as well as submitted charge-sheet and so, their evidences also appear to be of no much reliance.

From the defence side, as is evident, no D.W. has been examined but, C.C. of F.I.R. of Patepur P.S. Case No. 71/1990 and C.C. of charge-sheet of Patepur P.S. Case No. 71/1990 have been made as Ext.-A and B respectively. How without examining even the formal witness, C.C. of F.I.R. has been exhibited, is a matter of concern. From the Lower Court record, it is abundantly clear that main I.O. has not been examined. However, due to non-examination of I.O. whether interest of accused/appellant has been prejudiced, learned counsel for appellants failed to explore. Muchless, from the evidence of PW 3, PW 4 and PW 5, it is evident that irrespective of the fact that there happens to be admission with regard to presence of counter case but, during course of cross-examination, the injured remained consistent over the place of occurrence and in likewise manner, there also happens to be absence of contradiction exaggeration in their evidences and so, certainly the non-examination of the I.O. is not at all found adverse to the interest of the appellants/accused.

Now coming to facts of the case, it is evident from the evidence of PW9 that on account of piercing Bhala injury over the person of PW 3 (Marni Devi), the vein of neck has cut and on account thereof, the aforesaid injury has been found dangerous to life. From the cross-examination of PW 9, it is evident that at that very score, he was not at all cross-examined. He was not at all cross-examined nor suggested that had there been no medical facility as was given to the PW 3, she would had died. Apart from this, the injuries over the person of PW 3 and PW 5 respectively are found out of controversy as never been challenged at the end of the appellants. Apart from this, from their evidences, it is evident that there happens to be consistency during course of identifying assailant as well as manner of occurrence.

Learned counsel for the appellants has submitted that from the evidence available on record it is crystal clear that none of the appellants were carrying intention to commit murder nor they have acted with any knowledge that their activity may ultimately cost life of the injured and so, no offence under Section 307 of the Indian Penal Code is made out. It has also been submitted that in the aforesaid background, appellant Hardeo, who is the assailant of PW 5 (Ravindra Singh) from the back of axe and Suresh Prasad, who pierced Bhala to PW 3 (Marni Devi) are under custody since the day of judgment and so, even if the court considers that they are found guilty, sentence should be modified as already undergone.

Considering the evidence of PW 5 that the dispute was on account of passage amongst the parties and further, considering the conduct of the appellants, who during course of assault over PW 4 (Pulkit Singh) have not used Bhala as well as axe, PW 5, Ravindra Singh (informant) was given single axe blow from its back side, however, PW 3 was given Bhala blow that too without any repetition even in absence of intervening circumstance.

So, considering the submission having at the end of learned counsel for the appellants, maintaining the conviction so inflicted by the learned lower court, sentence is modified as period having already undergone. So far major Section is concerned, which will also cover the sentence relating to other minor offences.

As such, appellants, Ramprit Singh and Haresh Prasad, who are on bail, are discharged from liability of bail bonds, while appellants, Hardeo Singh and Suresh Prasad, who are under custody, are directed to be released forthwith, if not wanted in any other case.
