CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KUMAR UPADHYAY
ORAL ORDER

4 04-01-2019 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Mr. Gayanand Roy, learned counsel appearing for the University submits that the University has allocated fund to the concerned college for payment and, as such, the concerned College would take step for payment of arrears to the petitioner within a reasonable time.

Mr. Tara Nath Jha, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he has no instruction from his client whether the payment has been made or not, but he submits that if the University has allocated the fund to the college, the college is required to make payment to the petitioner and if payment is made to the petitioner within a reasonable time, then there is no point to pursue this application further.

Considering the aforesaid, the present application stands disposed of on the understanding that if the University has not already allocated the fund then it will allocate the fund to the concerned college for payment within a period of one month from today and the concerned college shall ensure payment thereof within a further period of 15 days.

In case, payment is not made within the time frame indicated herein above, liberty shall be available to the petitioner to file affidavit for revival of the present proceeding.

With the aforesaid, this application stands disposed of.
