ORAL ORDER

3 21-01-2019 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

This application for anticipatory bail arises out of Kanti P.S. Case N0. 351 of 2018, disclosing offences under Sections 341,323,354,366A,504 read with Section 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that there is apparent contradiction in the allegation made in the First Information Report on the basis of written report of the informant and the statement of the victim girl recorded under Section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure which suggest that the prosecution is malicious.

Be that as it may, considering the nature of the offence, in my view, a case for anticipatory bail is not made out.

This application is rejected.

However, the petitioners are directed to surrender before the Court below within four weeks from today and seek regular bail, if so advised. If they do so, their application for regular bail shall be considered on its own merit without being prejudiced by rejection of the present application for grant of anticipatory bail by this Court.
