Appearance :

For the Petitioner/s : Mr. Ajay Kumar Sinha, Advocate
For the Opposite Party/s : Mr. Jharkhandi Upadhyay, APP

CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE AHSANUDDIN AMANULLAH ORAL JUDGMENT

Date : 04-12-2019

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned APP for the State.

2. The petitioner seeks bail in S. Tr. No. 227 of 2019 arising out of Belaganj PS Case No. 304 of 2018 dated 09.10.2018 instituted under Sections 304(B)/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. The allegation against the petitioner and seven others is of killing the sister of the informant and disposing off the body.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the allegation is false and that there was no reason for him to kill his wife and that she had herself consumed poison.

5. Learned APP, from the case diary, submitted that the strongest circumstantial evidence against the petitioner and seven other co-accused is that they had not even bothered to inform either the police or the family members of the deceased and the body was disposed off behind their back. It was further submitted that there was also no attempt by the petitioner, who was the husband, to take the deceased to any doctor for treatment if he was aware of the fact that she had consumed poison. It was submitted that before the police, during investigation, witnesses have supported the prosecution story.

6. Having considered the facts and circumstances of the case and submissions of learned counsel for the parties, the Court is not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail.

7. Accordingly, the application stands dismissed.
