CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ASHUTOSH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

2 01-08-2019 The petitioner is aggrieved by the rejection of his name for being appointed on compassionate ground

for the reasons of delay.

It appears from the impugned order that the father of the petitioner died in the year 2004 and after about ten years of his death, an application was filed for considering the case of the petitioner on compassionate ground.

The rules with regard to compassionate appointment is very clear that such claim could not be considered after five years of the death of the employee in harness. Even the ground of the petitioner being minor at the time of death of his father also cannot come to his avail as he became major in the year 2011.

The purpose of compassionate appointment is to provide succour to the family in distress and it cannot be taken to be a mode of appointment or a backdoor through which any person could be appointed. The delay in itself is a malady which cannot be condoned.

There is no merits in the writ petition and therefore it is dismissed.
