CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

16 10-04-2019 Heard Sri V.N. Sahay, learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri Dhirendra Singh, learned counsel for opposite party no. 1 as well as Mr. Md. Ataul Haque, learned counsel for

The present petition has been filed with a prayer to initiate contempt proceeding against opposite parties on an allegation of disobedience to an order passed in a writ petition. The said order was passed in Interlocutory Application i.e. I.A. No. 9744 of 2015 filed under Section 17(B) of the Industrial Dispute Act, 1947 on behalf of the petitioner. The writ petition i.e. C.W.J.C. No. 1036 of 2015 was admitted on 16-11-2016. The writ petition was filed by the management and in the said writ petition, an interlocutory application vide I.A. No. 9744 of 2015 was filed on behalf of the workman under Section 17(B) of the Industrial Dispute Act, 1947. The said interlocutory application was allowed and direction was given for making regular payment to the respondent no. 2 of the writ petition, who is petitioner in the present contempt petition. The contempt petition was taken up on number of occasions and finally, it was accepted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the employer is making payment, but a prayer is being made for enhancement of the wages, which is being paid to the petitioner in present situation.

The Court is of the opinion that since writ petition is already pending and management is regularly making payment, in such situation, no purpose would be served in keeping the present petition pending.

The present petition stands disposed of.
