ORAL ORDER

5 19-02-2019 Learned counsel for the petitioner admits that certain amount has been paid to the petitioner in compliance of the direction issued by the writ Court. She submits that she is not sure whether the entire amount in terms of the order of the writ Court has been paid or not?

2. The order of the writ Court is subject matter of contempt. The order of the writ Court is as follows:

“So far as the other grievance with regard to arrears of salary for the period petitioner had worked on contractual basis is concerned, admittedly, having not been paid, they are required to be paid. The plea taken by the Bihar Hindi Granth Academy that, petitioner has not deposited about Rs. 11 lacs with regard to sell of books to Schools, Colleges and Universities is concerned, it is submitted that the Bihar Hindi Granth Academy itself is well aware that payments had to be made by the Schools, Universities and Colleges, and being seller directly to the Academy and not to the Academy of the petitioner nor was petitioner responsible for collecting payment nor it is alleged that petitioner had collected payments and not deposited. In my view, these are sufficient to absolve the liability. So far as petitioner is concerned, the salary, thus, for the period he worked after retirement on contractual basis, is also to be paid, accordingly.”

3. Considering the fact that certain payments have been made, the present proceeding is dropped. However, liberty shall be available to the petitioner that if he is not satisfied with the payment received and if anything further amount is payable to him, he may approach the competent authority/court for redressal of such grievance in accordance with law.

With the aforesaid, this application stands disposed of.
