counsel for the respondent-State.

The appellants have challenged the order dated 8.7.2019 passed by the Special Judge, SC/ST (POA), Begusarai in A.B.P. No.1191 of 2019 in connection with Complaint case No.15012C of 2014 registered for the offences under Sections 323, 307, 384, 147, 385 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 3(i) (x) of SC/ST Act, whereby the prayer made on behalf of the appellants for grant of anticipatory bail has been rejected.

Prosecution case, in short, is that the accused persons surrounded the complainant and started abusing him by defaming his caste name and asked him as to why he did not give Rs.25,000/- which were given to complainant for his livelihood and thereafter the accused persons started assaulting him with lathi, danda and wounded him.

It has been submitted on behalf of the appellants that the appellants No.2 and 3 have got no criminal antecedent. There is no allegation of tampering of witnesses alleged against the appellants. There is no injury report in respect of the offence under Section 307 of I.P.C. Appellants No.2 and 3 are ladies. Due to village politics, the appellants have been made accused in this case.

On behalf of the respondent-State, it is submitted that the appellants are named in the complaint case/F.I.R.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is inclined to and sets aside the order dated 8.7.2019, refusing to grant anticipatory bail to the appellants.

Let the appellants, above named, in the event of arrest/surrender before the learned court below within a period of six weeks from today, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (Ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned

Special Judge, SC/ST (POA), Begusarai in connection with Complaint case No.15012C of 2014.
