2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

3. This application under Articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India has been filed by the petitioner for directing the respondents to comply the order dated 30.11.2012 passed by the learned Principal Judge, Family Court, Patna by which, the respondent no.5, was directed to pay the interim maintenance amount of Rs.5,000/- per month to the petitioner.

4. In the opinion of this Court, the application is totally misconceived. A writ petition cannot be filed for a mandamus to be issued to the private respondents to comply with the order passed by a subordinate Court.
