ORAL ORDER

2 09-08-2019

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

This application for anticipatory bail arises out of Begusarai Town P.S. Case No. 668 of 2017, disclosing offences under Sections 406, 120(B), 323, 364, 302 and 201/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The father-in-law of the informant has been made an accused. For the allegation dating back to the year 2010, the FIR has been registered in 2017.

This is to be noted that the informant himself was in custody for several years on the basis of an FIR registered by his father-in-law in 2011.

Learned counsel for the informant has submitted that because the informant had remained in custody for several years, there has been delay in lodging of the FIR.

The petitioners belong to the same family.

It is alleged in the FIR that the father-in-law of the informant had taken from him certain amount on loan, which he refused to pay. It is also alleged that the informant's wife and his daughters have been kidnapped by the petitioners.

Considering the nature of allegation and delay in lodging of the FIR, this application is allowed. Let the petitioners, above named, in the event of their arrest/surrender within six weeks from today in the court below, be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) each, with two sureties of the like amount each, to the satisfaction of the learned SDJM, Begusarai in connection with Begusarai Town P.S. Case No. 668 of 2017, subject to the condition as laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

This is subject to the condition that the petitioners shall present themselves before the Police/Court, as the case may be, as and when required and in the event of failure on their part to appear before the court on two consecutive occasions, their bail bonds shall be liable to be cancelled.
