ORAL ORDER

2 19-08-2019 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State.

Petitioners apprehend their arrest in connection with Kurtha P.S. Case No.72 of 2019 for the offence punishable under Sections 452, 380 of the Indian Penal Code.

The allegation against the petitioners, as mentioned in the FIR is that the informant's daughter was sleeping in his house and door was opened. On the date of occurrence, i.e., on 24.05.2019, the daughter of the informant woke up due to sound and she saw that the petitioners were removing household articles from the house. It has further been alleged that on objection being raised by the daughter of the informant, the petitioners inflicted blow by means of sickle to the informant's daughter due to which Baijayanti Devi sustained cut injury in her palm of right hand and another daughter, Sawitri Devi sustained cut injury whereas Khushbu Kumari sustained injury in her back. It has further been alleged that the petitioners took away golden ring, nose pin etc. from the daughter of the informant. It has further been alleged that when the informant came back to his house from outside, he found that one bicycle kept in the back and cash of Rs.2,500/- were missing from the house.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioner No.1 is father of petitioner No.2 and 3. Learned counsel further submits that both the parties are neighbours and there is previous enmity between them inasmuch as earlier also case was lodged by the informant against the petitioners. Learned counsel submits that the present case has been filed due to some scuffle which had taken place between the informant and petitioner No.1.

After having heard learned counsel for the petitioners as well as learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State and taking into consideration the fact that both the parties are neighbours and there appears to be previous enmity between them, as such, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to all the petitioners.
