ORAL ORDER

2 27-08-2019 The petitioners apprehend their arrest in connection with Laukahi P. S. Case No. 29 of 2019 registered under Sections
143,188,341 and 353 of the Indian Penal Code.

Allegation against the petitioners is that the police party arrived near NH-57 with respect to investigation of an accidental case in which one person had died and these petitioners obstructed the police party in performing their duty for about four hours causing inconvenience to the general public.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners submits that petitioners have falsely been implicated in this case inasmuch as some of the persons, who were indulged in blocking the road, were arrested at the spot and the FIR has been lodged after lapse of two days in which name of the petitioners have falsely been implicated and the petitioners have got no criminal antecedents.

After having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the fact that petitioners have got no criminal antecedents and there is delay in lodging the FIR, as such I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Let the petitioners, above-named, in the event of arrest or surrender before the court below within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, be released on bail upon furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned SDJM, Jhanjharpur (Madhubani) in connection with Laukahi P.S.Case No. 29 of 2019; subject to condition as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.
