married with another lady. It appears that the process has been issued only for the offence under Section 498A IPC.

Submission of learned counsel for the petitioner is another person, which has given in the informatory petition, but no details address of the person with whom she has married is given in the informatory petition. Further submission is that he is still ready to keep her with dignity and care, if she is ready to live with him.

Heard learned APP also.

In such view of the matter, let the petitioner, above named, surrender on 09.12.2019 and on that day, the opposite party no.2 shall also remain present in the Court. Further on filing of the affidavit by the petitioner that he is ready to keep her with full dignity and care, the learned court below shall release the petitioner on provisional bail for a period of six months. During that period, the learned court below shall watch the conduct and marital relationship of both the parties. Once the court below is satisfied with the conduct of both the parties, the court below either confirm the bail bonds of the petitioner or pass any other orders which may deem fit and proper, including cancelling the bail bonds of the petitioner.
