Allegation as per F.I.R. is that petitioner and other accused persons the cattle shed of informant of fire causing death of one cow.

Submission of learned counsel for the petitioners is that they have falsely been implicated in this case due to village politics and the alleged occurrence has taken place in the month of May – June and as a matter of fact there was natural fire in the cattle shed.

Learned counsel for the State opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail and submitted that witnesses have supported the allegation.

Having heard both sides, considering the facts and circumstances , I am not inclined to grant the privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioners rather petitioners may surrender before the court below and make prayer for regular bail and if any such application is filed, the court below will dispose of the same on the merit of the case, without being prejudiced by this order.
