ORAL ORDER

2 03-09-2019 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State.

Petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Parsa
P.S. Case No.199 of 2019 for the offence punishable under Sections 447, 341, 323, 324, 325, 307, 504, 506, 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The allegation against the petitioner as per the First Information Report is that petitioner along with nine other accused persons arrived at the door of the informant with lathi, knife, etc. in their hand and petitioner assaulted the informant on his head by means of lathi.

Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that petitioner and informant are neighbours and there was dispute between the parties while their children were playing in the field.
Learned counsel further submits that there is case and counter case inasmuch as son of petitioner, Kamlesh Kumar, has lodged Parsa P.S. Case

No.200 of 2019 against the informant and his family members. Learned counsel relying upon Annexure-2, which is injury report of the informant, submits that from perusal of the injury report, it is evident that injuries caused to the informant are simple in nature.

After having heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State and taking into consideration the fact that both the parties are neighbours and there was dispute on trivial issue between them and injuries caused to the informant are simple in nature, as such, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, the petitioner, above named, is directed to surrender before the learned Court below within a period of four weeks from today and in the event of surrender by him, he shall be released on anticipatory bail by the Court below upon furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (Ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned A.C.J.M. 2nd, Saran at Chapra, subject to the condition as mentioned under Section 438 (2) of Cr.P.C.
