The petitioners apprehend their arrest in Guraru P.S. case No. 25 of 2019 registered under Section 147, 304B of the IPC.

The informant named 17 persons and alleged that his sister was married to Ramesh Singh, son of Parmanand Singh, village Kochi, P.S. Guraru about six years ago but after marriage her husband and other in-laws began to torture her. On 08.02.2019 his brother-in-law, husband of the deceased, took the sister of informant to his house and only after two days she informed him about torture given to her by her in-laws. On 12.02.2019 the informant got telephonic information that his sister was killed. On such, the informant went there and saw dead body of his sister lying on a cot.

The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners are sisters-in-law of the deceased. The informant altogether named 17 persons and this fact itself shows that the informant made the entire family members and relations of the husband of the deceased as accused. The deceased never complained any ill treatment during her marital relation with her husband during six years. No specific allegation is made against the petitioners.

The learned counsel for the State and the learned counsel for the informant, however, vehemently opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail.
