CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KUMAR UPADHYAY
ORAL ORDER

2 17-10-2019 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the respondents.

At the relevant time, the petitioner was not getting salary for the reason that Managing Committee was non-functional. Now, it is admitted by the petitioner that the Managing Committee has been constituted and it is functional and, as such, there is no difficulty in counter signing the Bill of the petitioner for payment.

Accordingly, the writ application is disposed of with a direction to the District Education Officer, Banka to take steps for ensuring payment of salary at the earliest after submission of Bill duly counter signed by the Managing Committee of the school, in question.
