ORAL JUDGMENT

Date : 25-04-2019

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the opposite parties.

2. The present petition has been filed for initiating a contempt proceeding against the opposite parties for willful disobedience of the order of the writ court dated 09.05.2014 passed in C.W.J.C. No. 10781 of 2010.

3. Learned counsel for the opposite parties states that the order of the writ court stands complied with and the payment found admissible to the petitioner has since been paid.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner fairly accepts that he has received payment of the amount due to him however it is submitted that no interest in respect of delayed payment has been made.

5. A perusal of the order of the writ court discloses that there was a direction for consideration of the petitioner’s claim and upon taking a decision in that regard, to make payment of the required amount to the petitioner. However there was no direction for making payment of interest for delayed payment of the amount in question.

6. In this view of the matter, this Court is satisfied that the order of the writ court stands complied with.

7. The contempt petition stands disposed.
