CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KUMAR UPADHYAY
ORAL ORDER

3 27-08-2019 The petitioner has challenged the order of the State
Appellate Authority.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the State Appellate Authority has committed error in remanding the matter back to the District Teachers Employment Appellate Authority.

It appears from the order of the State Appellate Authority that there is no adverse order passed against this petitioner. The State Appellate Authority has simply directed the parties to approach the District Teachers Employment Appellate Authority, where the appeal is now pending consideration.

In view of the above, the Court is not inclined to grant any indulgence to the petitioner. The writ petition is dismissed as the same issue cannot be adjudicated at two places, i.e. one at District Teachers Employment Appellate Authority and the other in the High Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.
