ORAL ORDER

11 18-10-2019 Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he is conscious of the fact that the original writ petitioner has died during pendency of the instant proceedings. In order dated 20.03.2018 passed in the instant proceedings, intimation in this regard was brought on record and this Court had granted time for filing substitution, if so desired by the legal heirs of the original petitioner. The matter has, thereafter, been listed on three occasions. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that one and half years later, he has no instructions for filing substitution petition in the instant proceedings.

Having regard to the aforesaid circumstances, the writ petition is dismissed.
