ORAL ORDER

3 05-09-2019 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State.

The petitioners apprehend their arrest in connection with Chautham P.S. Case No. 148 of 2019 registered under section 452, 366, 511, 506 and 34 of the I.P.C.

The allegation against the petitioners is that petitioners along with two other accused persons tried to forcibly kidnap the daughter of the informant on the gun point and upon protest they abused the informant. However, two accused persons were apprehended and these petitioners succeeded in fleeing away.

Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners have falsely been implicated in this case inasmuch as there was a dispute relating to construction of a hut by the informant on Waterways bandh which was being protested by the petitioners as well as co-villagers and upon which scuffle took place between the parties. Learned counsel further submits that the motorcycle which was produced by the informant to the police allegedly seized by the informant and same does not belong to the petitioners. Learned counsel further submits that the petitioners have got no criminal antecedent.

After having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the fact that the petitioners have got no criminal antecedent and it appears that there is a dispute pertaining to construction of a hut on the Waterways bandh by the informant, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, the petitioners, above named, in the event of arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of four weeks from today shall be released on anticipatory bail by the Court below upon furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of Sri Satish Mani Tripathi, learned Judicial Magistrate, Ist Class, Khagaria in connection with Chautham P.S. Case No. 148 of 2019, subject to the condition as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.
