ORAL ORDER

2      13-09-2019                      Heard learned counsel for the parties.

This application for anticipatory bail arises out of Majhauliya P.S. Case No. 127 of 2019, disclosing the offence under Sections 341, 323, 324, 325, 379, 354, 504, 506, 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

For an occurrence said to have taken place on 07.03.2019, the FIR came to be registered on 25.03.2019. Members of the same family have been implicated in the FIR. It is alleged that they attempted to outrage the informant's modesty and assaulted her, her husband and family members variously.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners has submitted that this FIR is counter-blast to Manjhauliya P.S. Case No. 104 of 2019 registered on 20.03.2019 on the basis of fardbeyan of petitioner no. 2 taken by the Sub-Inspector of Police in injured condition on 10.03.2019. It has been argued that the case of the prosecution, as disclosed in the FIR, in the present case, is imaginary and improbable.

Considering the facts and circumstances and the submissions made on behalf of the petitioners, as noted above, a case for grant of anticipatory bail is made out. This application is allowed. Let the petitioners, above-named, in the event of their arrest/surrender within six weeks from today in the court below, be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/-(ten thousand) each, with two sureties of the like amount each, to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, West Champaran at Bettiah in Majhauliya P.S. Case No. 127 of 2019, subject to the condition as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

This is subject to the condition that the petitioners shall present themselves before the Police/ Court, as the case may be, as and when required and in the event of failure on their part to appear before the court on two consecutive occasions, their bail bonds shall be liable to be cancelled.
