ORAL ORDER

2 16-09-2019 Heard both sides.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in Terhagachh P.S. Case No.24 of 2019, registered under Sections 366 and 363 of the Indian Penal Code.

The informant alleged that when he had gone to the house of his relatives, the petitioner came and took his wife along with his two children.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the victim made her statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C. and she disclosed that her husband and other in laws subjected her to physical torture due to non-fulfillment of demand of dowry but it appears that at the same time the victim alleged that the petitioner took her to Ahmedabad and committed rape with her. Of course the victim is mother of five children but the victim made allegation that the petitioner committed rape with her.

Taking into consideration the facts aforesaid, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail. Accordingly, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is rejected.
