CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJEEV RANJAN PRASAD
ORAL ORDER

4 28-11-2019 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
APP for the State.

The petitioner in this case is seeking anticipatory bail in connection with S.K. Puri P.S. Case No.251 of 2018 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 419 and 420 of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the criminal case has been lodged against the petitioner with oblique motive and in order to save those persons who have misappropriated the amount and against whom this petitioner has lodged S.K.Puri P.S. Case No.258 of 2018.

Learned APP for the State submits that in the FIR there are serious allegations against this petitioner who was working in the sales department of the company. It is alleged that the petitioner had got deposited a sum of Rs.7, 70,000/- from the customers of the company in his own bank account with ICICI. It is further alleged that the petitioner has issued forged money receipt to the customers after receiving cash which he has deposited in his own account.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case wherein there is specific allegation against the petitioner and some materials have come in the case diary saying that the petitioner had received cash amount from some of the customers which he has allegedly misappropriated, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. This application is dismissed.

In case the petitioner surrenders and prays for regular bail in the court below within a period of four weeks from today, his prayer for regular bail shall be considered on its own merit without prejudiced by the order of this Court.
