ORAL JUDGMENT

(Per: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE)

Date : 24-10-2019

The first relief prayed by the petitioner is for quashing of a judicial order, but the writ petition has been framed as a habeas corpus petition claiming the relief of custody.

In our considered opinion, it would be more appropriate that the order of detention and sending the victim to remand home can be better assailed either in a revision petition or such other forum as the petitioner may be advised to approach in accordance with law together with consequential reliefs.

Consigned to records with the above.
