ORAL ORDER

2 20-09-2019 The petitioner was an applicant for selection against the post of Police Sub Inspector, advertised through Advertisement No. 1/17. It is her case that she had qualified the preliminary test and written examination (Main). She, however, could not complete the Physical Evaluation Test (PET) because she had suffered certain injuries. In the aforesaid background, the petitioner is seeking a direction to the respondents to allow her to take the PET by giving her another chance.

It is not in dispute that selection, based on the said

Advertisement No. 1/17, is complete in all respect and appointments have been made on the posts. The petitioner, admittedly, could not participate in the PET. No provision has been shown to me, which could have permitted the authorities to allow the petitioner another chance to appear for the PET.

In such view of the matter, no relief, as sought, can be granted.

This writ application is accordingly dismissed.
