Allegation against the petitioners in the FIR lodged by the wife of younger brother of the petitioners, is that while she was on roof of her house along with her family members, co-sharers of the informant along with others started abusing her and upon objection, she was assaulted by the petitioners and others by means of iron rod, farsa and lathi.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners submits that both parties are close relatives and the informant is the wife of younger brother of the petitioners. Learned counsel submits that both parties reside in the same house and there was scuffle between them and there is case and counter case in between the parties inasmuch as father-in-law of the informant has lodged FIR bearing Dhaka P.S. Case No. 129 of 2019 against his son and daughter-in-law i.e., informant stating there in that they assaulted the informant and other family members and the petitioners. Learned counsel further submits that both sides received injuries which were found simple in nature, however, injury caused to the informant on her wrist was found to be grievous due to fracture on wrist.

Having regard to the submissions made by the parties and taking into consideration the fact that both parties are close relatives and are brothers and there is case and counter case in between the parties and both sides received injuries, as such I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Let the petitioners, above-named, in the event of arrest or surrender before the court below within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, be released on bail upon furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned SDJM, Sikrahana at Dhaka, East Champaran in connection with Dhaka P.S.
