ORAL ORDER

2 27-09-2019 This is an application for grant of anticipatory bail in connection with Complaint Case No. 1484-C of 2018, disclosing offences under Section 498A of the Indian Penal Code and Section 4 of Dowry Prohibition Act.

Petitioner happens to be the husband of the informant.
As per F.I.R. petitioner use to demand the dowry and assaulting her and father of the informant has given Rs.50,000/-, again Rs.20,000/- and thereafter, Rs.40,000/-. Petitioner has also taken a loan of Rs.25,000/- from the bank, but still he continue to make the demand, for that, assaulted the informant while she was pregnant and ousted her from the house.

Submission of learned counsel for the petitioner is that the whole allegation is false and concocted and he is still ready to keep her with full dignity and care.

Heard learned APP also.

Having heard both sides, in view of the facts, as stated above, this application is disposed of with a direction to the petitioner to surrender before the learned court below within a period of three weeks from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order, on surrender, he will be released on provisional bail for a period of six months to the satisfaction of the learned court below. During that period, the court below shall issue notice to the opposite party no.2-informant. Once the opposite party no.2 is appeared and she is ready to reside with the petitioner and petitioner is ready to keep her with dignity and care, the court below shall watch the conduct of both the parties for further four months and if, he is satisfied with the conduct of both the parties, he will confirm the bail bonds of the petitioner. If, the opposite party no.2 did not choose to reside with the petitioner, the court below after hearing both the parties and considering the materials available on the record either confirm the bail bonds of the petitioner or pass any order or orders including directing the petitioner to surrender and pray for regular bail.
