CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VINOD KUMAR SINHA
ORAL ORDER

2 16-10-2019 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in connection with Complaint Case No.5258 of 2016 registered for offences punishable under Sections 147, 323, 498A and 406 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per the complaint case there is allegation against the petitioner of subjecting the complainant, who happens to his wife of cruelty and assault and in spite of intervention she was again tortured.

Submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that the allegation is false and concocted and she is a lady of questionable character.

Heard learned A.P.P. also and from perusal for the record, it appears that the learned court below has taken effort for reconciliation between the parties but the petitioner has rightly refused for the same on the ground that she is a lady of questionable character and as such it appears that there is no chance for reconciliation between the parties.

Having heard both sides and in view of the facts and circumstances, as stated above, I am not inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, however, the petitioner is directed to surrender before the learned court below and make prayer for regular bail, which will be considered by the learned court below without being prejudiced by the order of this Court.

With the aforesaid direction, this application is dismissed.
