ORAL ORDER

3 21-11-2019 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners, learned counsel for the informant and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

The petitioners are apprehending their arrest in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 341, 323, 504, 506, 307/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The prosecution case as lodged by the informant is that on 05.06.2019 around 8.30AM, the petitioners were cutting his Semal tree situated near his house and daughter-in-law of the petitioners along with her children was plucking quince fruits from the quince tree of the informant. The informant asked them as to why they were cutting his Semal tree and plucking quince fruits, they replied that decree has been passed in their favour of the said land. When the informant asked them to show paper of the land, they started hurling abuses and on protest petitioner Ram Sagar Sah caused injury with axe on his head. When he fell down petitioner Daulato Devi caused injury with Garasi on his head.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that there is land dispute between the parties. He submits that petitioners have constructed their residential house on the said land. He submits that there are three cases between the parties and out of the abovementioned entity, this case has been filed with false and frivolous allegations. Moreover, the injuries found on the person of the informant are simple in nature.

In the facts and circumstances of the case, let the petitioners, above named, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the Court below within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of the order, be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (rupees ten thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned A.C.J.M.-XI, Saran at Chapra in connection with Rasulpur Police Station Case No. 83 of 2019, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.
