The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in connection with Bhabua P.S.Case No.491/19 registered for offences punishable under Sections 147, 149, 341, 323, 324, 325, 307, 379 and 506 of the Indian Penal Code.

Submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that the allegations are general and omnibus and as a matter of fact the informant met with an accident and the petitioner and other accused persons have been falsely implicated in this case.

Heard learned A.P.P. who has opposed the prayer for bail on the ground that the petitioner has criminal antecedent also and apart from that the impugned order shows that the informant carries injuries also including fracture injury.

Having heard both sides and in view of the facts and circumstances, as stated above, I am not inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner, however, the petitioner is directed to surrender before the learned court below and make prayer for regular bail.
