CORAM: HONOURABLE JUSTICE SMT. ANJANA MISHRA ORAL ORDER

3 04-12-2019 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the State.

The petitioner is in custody since 25.01.2019 in connection with Chand P.S. Case No.275 of 2017 registered for the offence under Sections 304-B, 120B, 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The prosecution case is that since after the marriage which took place on 18.05.2014, the daughter of the informant was being harassed for a gold chain and a Hero Honda Motorcycle and as consequence thereof, she was being subjected to continuous assault. It is submitted by the informant in his F.I.R. that in order to save his prestige, he had repeatedly gone to his daughter's sasural and tried to persuade the elder brother and his wife and also the father and mother to refrain from making such demands. It is further stated in the F.I.R. that during one such visit, the informant's daughter had also stated that the husband of the deceased lady, son-in-law of the present informant was having illicit relation with his Bhabhi namely, Meena Devi and even though, he had tried to persuade his son-in-law to see reason and not tortured his daughter. The said action was being continued and the husband was finally assured that as soon as money would be available by the informant, the said motorcycle and gold chain would be provided. However, on 05.12.2017, the petitioner and his elder brother, his wife and also father and mother hatched conspiracy and burnt the daughter of the informant.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the entire allegation is false and the same have been levelled for oblique reason in fact, the daughter of the informant had killed herself and it was only after the door was broke open, it was found that she had killed herself.

In view of the aforementioned facts and circumstances, I am not inclined to grant regular bail to the petitioner. It is accordingly, rejected.

However, learned lower court is directed to expedite the trial.
