APP for the State.

The petitioners are apprehending their arrest in a case

504, 506, 379, 307 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The prosecution case, in short, is that the son of the person then his trailer hit one animal on account of which he was assaulted by the accused persons due to which he sustained injuries.

It has been submitted on behalf of the petitioners that the petitioners have got no criminal antecedent. There is no allegation of tampering of witnesses alleged against the petitioners. The petitioners have falsely been implicated in the present case. General and omnibus allegation has been made against the petitioners. No specific overt act has been alleged against the petitioners.

On behalf of the State, it is submitted that the petitioners are named in the F.I.R. The nature of injury is said to be grievous, hence offence under Section 307 IPC is made out.

Considering the same, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. Prayer is rejected. However, if the petitioners surrender in the Court below and pray for bail, the same shall be considered on its own merit without being prejudiced by this order.
