CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE BIRENDRA KUMAR
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date : 29-04-2019

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

2. By the impugned order dated 14.09.2017 passed in Maintenance Case No.116(M) of 2012, on an application under Section 125 Cr.P.C., the learned Principal Judge, Family Court, Kaimur has allowed maintenance of Rs.4,000/- per month for opposite party No.2- the wife of the petitioner and Rs.1,000/- per month for the minor daughter of the petitioner.

3. The learned court below has considered the reasonable excuse for separate living by the wife as well as financial status of the parties.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner has challenged the quantum of maintenance on the ground that it is excessive one as the petitioner is a washerman and has a very low income from that.

5. The opposite Party No.2 has stated in her evidence that husband is doing wholesale business of beetle. Besides he has income from agriculture.

6. After hearing the parties, in my view, the amount of maintenance not excessive one. The impugned order suffers from no infirmity. Hence, this criminal revision application is dismissed as devoid of any merit.
