ORAL ORDER

3 09-12-2019 This is an application for grant of anticipatory bail in connection with Bhagwan Bazar P. S. Case No. 26 of 2019, disclosing offences under Sections 304B/34 of IPC.

Petitioner happens to be the husband of the deceased. There is allegation of dowry death against the petitioner. The death of the deceased was caused by sprinkling the kerosene oil on her.

Submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that F.I.R. itself disclosed that petitioner was not present on the day of occurrence and he has falsely been implicated in this case. In this case, a compromise has been reached between the parties.

Heard learned A.P.P. also, who has opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail on the ground that there is allegation of dowry death and she has been killed by the petitioner on setting her on fire.

Having heard both sides, in view of the allegations, I am not inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. However, he has to surrender before the learned court below and make prayer for regular bail, the same shall be considered on its own merit, without being prejudiced by order of this Court.

With the aforesaid, this application is dismissed.
