ORAL ORDER

2 27-11-2019 Petitioner seeks bail in anticipation of his arrest in connection with Hathua P.S. Case No. 155 of 2019. G.R. No. 969 of 2019, registered for the offence punishable under Section 30(a) of Bihar Prohibition and Excise Act.

On information that petitioner had carried liquor in his tempo police raided the house of the petitioner and in front of his house from tempo altogether 123.4 litres of liquor has been recovered.

Submission of learned counsel for the petitioner is that he is neither owner nor driver of the tempo and he has been made accused only on suspicion, having no criminal antecedent.

Heard learned APP, who has opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail stating that recovery is made from in front of house of the petitioner from tempo, as such he does not deserve bail.

In view of above facts and circumstances, I am not inclined to grant the privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. He has to surrender and pray for regular bail.

This application is, accordingly, dismissed.
