ORAL ORDER

2 02-12-2019 This is an application for grant of anticipatory bail in connection with Lakhisarai P.S. Case No. 640 of 2019, disclosing offences punishable under Sections 406 and 420 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per F.I.R, the informant has given Rs. 22,000/- to the petitioner by the transfer of the money in his account and again given Rs. 8,000/- to the grand father of the petitioner for the purpose of getting land document (Kewala) but the petitioner had neither provided document nor returned the money to the informant.

Submission of learned counsel for the petitioner is that the allegation against the petitioner is vague because which purpose this money has been transferred in his account is not clear and if he has given time to return the money which has been transferred to his account, will return the money to the informant.

Heard learned A.P.P.

Having heard both sides, in view of the facts and circumstances, as stated above, this bail application is disposed of with a direction to the petitioner to reconsider and pray for bail and, if he is ready to return the aforesaid amount of Rs. 22,000/- to the informant by Bank Draft, the learned court below shall consider the aforesaid facts while considering the bail prayer of the petitioner.

With the aforesaid, this bail application is disposed of.
