CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MOHIT KUMAR SHAH
ORAL ORDER

2.5.2018 passed in CWJC No. 18317 of 2017.

In order to appreciate futility of the present contempt petition, it would be apparent to reproduce the order dated

02.05.2018, disobedience whereof is being complaint of, herein below:-

“ After some arguments, the learned counsel for the petitioners seeks permission to withdraw the present writ petition with liberty to the petitioners to approach the appropriate authority for consideration of their cases in light of the order dated 22.02.2008 passed by this Court in C.W.J.C. No. 7325 of 2005.

The present writ petition is disposed of as withdrawn with the aforesaid liberty.

However, it is directed that no writ petition would lie, henceforth, before this Court as far as the petitioners herein are concerned, with regard to the subject matter of the present case.”

It would be apparent from the aforesaid order dated 02.05.2018 passed by this Court that no positive mandamus was issued to the respondent-authorities and, in fact, the petitioners had withdrawn the writ petition realising that they had no case, therefore, no question arises as to non-compliance/ disobedience of the orders of this Court, in absence of any positive direction having been issued by this Court to any of the opposite parties.

For the reasons mentioned herein above, the present contempt petition stands dismissed.
