The petitioner seeks anticipatory bail in connection with Ara Nawada P.S.Case No. 355 of 2018, registered for offences punishable under Sections 420, 406 and 504 of the Indian Penal Code.

Allegation as per F.I.R. against the petitioner is of taking money from the informant for admission of the son of the informant and after demanding the money by the informant, the petitioner assaulted him.

Submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that he has falsely been implicated in this case and the petitioner has got no concern with admission of the son of the informant in Prasad Medical College, Lucknow and he has no

At the very outset learned counsel for the informant has informed that process under Section 82 Cr.P.C. has already been issued against the petitioner which appears from case diary.

Having heard both sides and in view of the facts and circumstances as discussed above, the case of the petitioner is concerned, I am not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, Accordingly, prayer of anticipatory bail is rejected with a direction to the petitioner that if the petitioner surrender before the court below within a period of four weeks from the date of order and make prayer for regular bail, which will be considered by the learned court below on its own merit without being prejudiced by this order of this Court.
