Heard learned counsel appearing on behalf of petitioner and the learned counsel appearing on behalf of State.

2. The petitioner has filed this writ application under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for directing the respondent to accept her joining and pay her dues arrears of salary as well as current salary.

3. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of petitioner submits that after selection, the petitioner joined as Panchayat

Teacher on 22.11.2013 in Primary School, Dhanibigha, Block-Keshru Dharmpur, District – Gaya, while she was regularly coming to the school for teaching of students, but, all of sudden, in the month of September, 2016, she became ill and her health was going to deteriorate then after consulting the Doctor, she made applications for leave for medical treatment before the concerned authority on 17.10.2016 and 01.11.2016, respectively. After regaining her fitness, physically and mentally, she went to the concerned authority on 01.10.2019 for accepting her joining on duty, but she was not permitted to join on duty and her salary has also not been paid to her since September, 2017.

Since, the petitioner has alternative remedy, I am not inclined to entertain this writ application. Accordingly, this application is disposed of with a direction to
