ORAL ORDER

2 16-12-2019 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners, learned counsel for the informant and learned APP for the State.

The petitioners seek bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 147, 148, 149, 323, 325, 326
and 307 of the Indian Penal Code.

Nine named accused persons including the petitioners and five unknown miscreants are said to have assaulted the informant and his family members by means of sword, khanti etc. and petitioner Laldeo Yadav is said to have assaulted Meena Devi by means of sword on her hand while Kamlesh Yadav by means of khanti on her thigh over property dispute.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioners that no such occurrence as alleged ever took place. There is a case and counter case between the parties. There was free fight and both the parties have sustained injury. Though Meena Devi sustained four injuries but all are simple in nature barring one injury which is on shoulder. Petitioner Laldeo Yadav is said to have assaulted Meena Devi by means of sword but the doctor has not found any sword injury on the person of Meena Devi rather all the injuries have been caused by hard blunt substance. Petitioners have no criminal antecedent and have been languishing in custody since 04.10.2019.

Learned counsel for the informant and learned APP for the State opposed the bail petition and submitted that the petitioners have assaulted Meena Devi by means of sword and Khanti. Hence, they do not deserve bail.

Considering the facts aforesaid, the above named petitioners are directed to be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned

Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate-IX, Gaya in connection with Magadh University P.S. Case No.92 of 2019.
